

Report on the NUJM Gala Dinner Diamond Jubilee

Date: 12th November 2024

Location: Dewan Tun Hussein Onn, WTC KL

The National Union of Journalists Malaysia (NUJM) celebrated its Diamond Jubilee in grand style on 12th November 2024, marking 60 years of dedication to the Malaysian media industry.

The gala dinner, attended by over 350 media practitioners, industry leaders, and distinguished guests, was a testament to NUJM's enduring legacy and its commitment to championing press freedom, professionalism, and ethical journalism.

The event's Guest of Honour was the Deputy Prime Minister (TPM) of Malaysia, Datuk Seri Fadillah Yusof, whose presence underscored the importance of media as a cornerstone of democracy. The Minister of Communications and Digital, YB Fahmi Fadzil, also graced the occasion, further emphasizing the government's acknowledgment of the vital role played by media practitioners in nation-building.

Highlights of the Event

1. Welcome Address by NUJM President

The evening began with a warm welcome by NUJM President Farah Marshita Abdul Patah, who reflected on the union's milestones over the past six decades. The president highlighted NUJM's relentless efforts in advocating for the rights and welfare of journalists, as well as its role in promoting responsible journalism in an ever-evolving media landscape.

2. Speech by the Deputy Prime Minister

In his keynote address, the Deputy Prime Minister praised the resilience and dedication of Malaysian journalists, particularly in navigating challenges in the digital age. He reiterated the government's support for media freedom and emphasized the importance of accurate and balanced reporting in fostering national unity and informed citizenship.

3. Awards and Recognitions

As part of the celebrations, NUJM presented awards to 4 outstanding media practitioners who have made significant contributions to the industry. The recipients were honored for their exceptional dedication, journalistic excellence, and impact on society.

4. Cultural Performances and Networking

The evening featured captivating cultural performances, symbolizing Malaysia's rich diversity, and provided an opportunity for media professionals to network and exchange ideas in a convivial atmosphere.

A Call to the Future;

The Diamond Jubilee gala dinner was not only a celebration of NUJM's achievements but also a platform to reflect on the challenges and opportunities ahead. In the face of the digital revolution and changing audience dynamics, NUJM reaffirmed its commitment to supporting journalists and upholding the principles of free and fair reporting.

The event concluded with a pledge to strengthen collaborations between the media industry, government, and civil society to ensure that journalism continues to thrive as a vital pillar of democracy in Malaysia.
